

Defending The King James Bible, Why?

The KJV is believed to be the superior translation by those who understand the Arian influence present in all modern translations. Arianism is the idea that Jesus Christ is not equal to the Father by nature, but He is the first creation of God. The founder of Arianism was Arius who died in 336. Before Arius died, he had many friends in high places including quite a few Asian bishops who tolerated his ideas. Arius and other bishops authored the manuscripts produced from Alexandria Egypt which contained the Arian influence.

The KJV's fourfold superiority: Note: TR=Textus Receptus

Its superior text —The TR is called by many different names throughout history, such as: The Antiochian Text, The Syrian Text, The Byzantine Text, The Majority Text, or simply the TR.

Its superior translators —The KJV translators were 47 men renowned spiritually and academically.

Their superior techniques —The KJV translators used the word-for-word method of translation.

Their superior theology —The KJV translators were men who were sound in the essential Bible doctrines.
